'68

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Dumas, Arkansas

Dedication

Of the three elements which make up a school--faculty, students, administration--the administration perhaps deals with the most perplexing of problems. Administrating a school means coping with a multitude of details. The handling of these details requires not only a capable and talented administrative staff, but a dedicated and versatile secretarial staff as well. The secretary to the principal has an especially involved job. She not only must perform appointed tasks, but become a vital part of the school, assisting the teachers, becoming involved in the activities and efforts of the student body, and befriending and advising individual students with whom she comes in contact. In fact it sometimes seems that this school might come to an abrupt and chaotic halt if it were not for this woman who knows where things are, who is supposed to be where and when, and what is going on and why.

Because the 1968 BOBCAT Staff feels a special affection for her--one who makes everyone's job easier in a thousand ways--we take much pride in dedicating THE 1968 BOBCAT to Mrs. Sally Cate.

A builder builded a temple,
He wrought it with grace and skill;
Pillars and groins and arches
All fashioned to work his will.
Men said, as they saw its beauty,
"It shall never know decay;
Great is thy skill, O Builder!
Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A Teacher builded a temple
With loving and infinite care,
Planning each arch with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.
None praised her unceasing efforts,
None knew of her wondrous plan,
For the temple the Teacher builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the Builder's temple,
Crumpled into the dust;
Low lies each stately pillar,
Food for consuming rust.
But the temple the Teacher builded
Will last while the ages roll,
For that beautiful unseen temple
Was a child's immortal soul.

Oh, strong limbed Bobcats, we salute thee,
Upon thy pedestal above,
You symbolize the things we stand for,
True friendship, wisdom, courage, love,
As students gather 'round thine altar
In tribute of devotion true,
We lift in praise our hearts and voices,
Dear DHS, to you.

Their vim and vigor urge the Bobcat team to victory -

Their lusty yells fill every silence -

They are the Dumas High Bobcat Cheerleaders - the essence of school spirit. They have worked so that their enthusiasm might direct our cheers with precision and fervor.

During the day, you can catch a glimpse of the nevertiring cheerleaders at work on decorating the halls or some device to create a spark of enthusiasm in the hearts of their fellow classmates.

The cheerleaders constitute the backbone of school spirit.

The Way of Time

Where is the time that used to be
out in the orchard,
down by the creek,
somewhere near the sea?
Forever past;
it cannot be reclaimed
except in memory.
Time does not pause to let us
live and relive,
over and over,
the sweet, happy hours
When days were gay with youth!
Relentlessly on it flows,
not able in inself to stop!
Mercifully on it flows,
if it could, it would not stop!
For neither does it pause to let us grovel
in the sorrow and error
of ashen yesterdays
that memory seeks to reject.
Each day, each hour, each moment
holds the key to joy or sorrow.
Time will not stop . . . Thank God . . .
but grants us fresh new days
that may become the happy memories of tomorrow.
